

General Information:

All entrants must not be over the age of 28 at the closing date of applications, 29th August.

The competition will be held on the 29th and 30th September at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, Bridge St, Sydney.

A minimum of 10 entrants are required for the competition to be held, if this is not met a full refund will be made to those who have entered.

The Preliminary round will be held on 29th in a venue to be confirmed at the Con and will not be a public round.

The finals will be on 30th in Recital Hall West and will be a public concert.

Preliminary Round

1. A movement from a sonata for piano and instrument of your own choice.
2. A quick study of a work for piano and instrument sent out two weeks in advance, with the instrumentalist provided by the Guild. Performed with a short discussion beforehand but no rehearsal.

Final Round

1. The whole sonata (of which a movement was chosen for the Preliminary Round)
2. Two songs of your own choice to be performed (limit 10 minutes) Competitors must provide their own instrumentalist and singer and scores for the adjudicators.

There will be 4 finalists chosen for the Final round.
The winner will receive $4,000 and the runner up, $2,000.
